

GROW WITH KIDO

Assistant Teacher:

In this entry level position, you'll work alongside experienced teachers, learning and developing your own skills as you support in managing a classroom and planning and leading age appropriate lessons.

Lead Teacher:

As a lead teacher, you'll have ownership over your classroom space and be responsible for preparing lessons utilizing Kido resources, developing positive relationships with children and families, and maintaining a clean and safe classroom environment. Additionally, you'll have opportunities to continue to grow as a leader by mentoring new team members along with future growth opportunities within the admin team.

School Administration and Support Staff:

Whether you're interested in curriculum, marketing, infant care and safety, or have a love for parent relationships and school events, we've got a role for you! Our administrative positions include but are not limited to Infant Care Coordinator, Curriculum Coordinator, Office Manager, and Assistant Director.

School Leadership:

In the School Director role, you'll be responsible for overseeing the day to day operations of the school, as well as managing teams and training. You'll have direct accountability for business components of early childhood, ensuring that you are collaborating with your admin team and the Hub team to keep the school operating for success.

Hub Team:

Our Hub team supports each school with marketing, human resources, curriculum, and business development. As we continue to add new schools to our organization, we will have opportunities arise on our Hub team, offering growth opportunities in a wide range of areas within the early childhood education space. We are passionate about promoting from within and celebrating our people. Join us and who knows, you might pioneer a role we never imagined!

At Kido, regardless of your starting position, if you're eager to pursue learning and development, the opportunities are boundless.
